FR. BEN'S "PAPER CLIPS"
PARISH PICNIC WAS A "SPLASH"!

One of the special things I previously enjoyed as a pastor was celebrating baptisms at Sunday Mass...and the preferred method of infant baptism—99.9% of the time—was "semi-immersion" in the baptismal font! Perhaps, then, in return for all the "dunking" I have done over the years—I had it coming to me! Amongst the many wonderful things that made up our parish picnic last Sunday afternoon—great food, great crowd, family-friendly activities, perfect weather, uplifting music from our Praise Band, and great food (did I say that already?!)—was the dunk tank! And boy...did I get soaked—must have been over 30 times! One young girl (who should be signed by the Tampa Bay Rays!) sank me 7 times in a row—far outshining one of the UCF kids who came to visit me—who whiffed on all 4 of his attempts!

The kids had a gleam in their eye that usually comes only on Christmas morning...and a few of our more "seasoned" parishioners, boldly facing down my threats of extra Purgatory time, were equally giddy about sending me overboard a couple of times! Other than a few bruises on the palms of my hands and my tailbone—I recovered quickly (thank you, Advil!)

Parish life has many aspects...at least it is meant to! Word & Worship, Evangelization, Service, Stewardship, Leadership and Community—all spinning around the axis of the Sunday Eucharist! And all of these were evident this past Sunday afternoon. We evangelized by inviting new people to our party. We served one another through great hospitality and offering so many extras to the buffet line. We were good stewards by sharing our parish income to provide for such a grand afternoon (these things cost $$). We saw leadership in action from the Knights of Columbus grilling their hearts out to the Praise Band's up-tempo songs; from the older youth and adults who watched over the kids' activities to the generosity of the "pony express"; from Gretchen and Debbie and Tim and Donna to the many other many helpers (especially the clean-up crew), who really worked so hard to organize, set up and carry off the picnic. And we enjoyed real community—laughs, fellowship, conversation, and just being together outside of our commitment to Word & Worship.

While we celebrated Holy Eucharist in the church this past weekend—I believe we carried Eucharist into the parking lot to continue our table fellowship in the Lord! The Body of Christ at Immaculate Conception was truly fed by the Lord in so many ways this weekend!

I look forward to more opportunities for us to be together here at Immaculate Conception as family, friends, and fellow pilgrims on our way toward the fullness of God Kingdom! We are putting in place some great opportunities for the Advent season, which we'll start publicizing in the near future. May the Lord bless you this coming week, and I hope that your love and commitment to our IC community (as we now enter our 41st year of Catholic faith in action) continues to grow, especially as we welcome home our "snowbirds" in the weeks ahead!

Count your blessings this week; and pray for those who are struggling to find them.

Fr. Ben
