

“A SAINTLY SUMMER” WITH ST. HILDEGARD OF BINGEN: Scientist, Composer, Healer, Mystic & Saint

Spend some time this summer with St. Hildegard of Bingen, one of the most remarkable & influential women in the history of the Church. Blessed with an astonishing array of talents, she was at once a mystic, theologian, scientist, doctor, nutritionist, composer, writer and artist. Today Hildegard is recognized as a Saint & Doctor of the Church. Learn what she has to tell us about our contemporary world and spiritual journey, as she speaks to us across 9 centuries!

June 10: Part I

Our series begins with viewing a short film (popcorn included) that will introduce to us Hildegard’s fascinating life: “St. Hildegard: Trumpet of God”

July 8: Part II & August 5 Part III:

Explore themes from the mystical life of this 12th century Doctor of the Church & why St. Hildegard still matters today!